Refunds made for cancellations received from October 7, 2025, to October 21, 2025, will be charged a $35 fee per animal and $15 fee per walking fleece class entered in the show.

No refunds will be made for cancellations received after October 21, 2025, or for No Shows.

All cancellations must be made in writing. All eligible refunds will be processed after the show.

Substitution Policy: Substitutions may be made to show registrations, animals or walking fleece class entries, subject to the payment of a substitution fee of $25.00 per animal or $10.00 per walking fleece class entry.

COVID19 SAFETY PROCEDURES:

Your safety is important to us due to COVID19, we recommend that you practice social distancing and utilize the handwashing and sanitizing stations at the show. We will continue to frequently sanitize restrooms, picnic tables, benches and highly touched surfaces, and seating and handrails will be sanitized before each show.

An inherent risk of exposure to COVID19 exists in any public place where people are present. COVID19 is an extremely contagious disease that can lead to severe illness and death. According to the Center of Disease Control and Prevention, senior citizens and guests with underlying medical conditions are especially vulnerable. By visiting the Summit County Fairgrounds and the Buckeye Alpaca Fall Fest, you voluntarily assume all risks related to exposure to COVID19.
